I hired John Kucera last year to help me with allegations my soon-to-be ex-wife made against me. The thing that made me trust him most was the advise he gave months before I'd hired him: "Don't hire me until you need me."

Most lawyers would want to be hired as soon as possible; John waited, talked to me when I called/emailed, never charged me beforehand, and then when the time seemed appropriate, he said, "Now is when you hire me."

John checked on my situation regularly, gave me updates whenever I asked, and was very reassuring. Thankfully the case was never brought to court, quite possibly because of conversations & correspondence John had with the law enforcement.

I had Mr. Kucera represent me through company Legal Insurance. He and Sam made what would have been a stressful situation for me as easy as possible with their excellent communication and follow through.

I got a speeding ticket in California, and I live in Oregon, so I truly appreciate that this Law Office covered me so thoroughly that I didn't even have to fly out to represent myself in court.

If you have a legal issue, John is an excellent Lawyer to work with. Sam is great too!
