

Dear John Kucera,

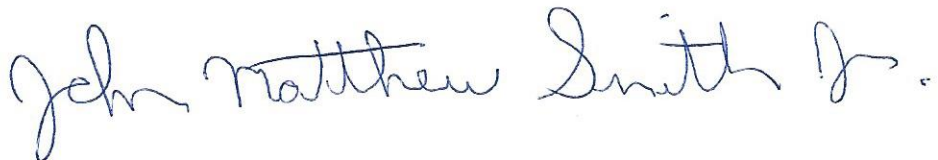

I would like to thank you for all of your hard work and efforts that you have put forth in proving my innocents, and in help vindicating me of any wrong doing!

Through all of the investigative works, and through all of the findings you were able to obtain, we were able to find all of the many discrepancies present in the case against me. It was through this evidence, and through the polygraph examination that I had passed, that the Tehama County District Attorney's office surrendered their case against me to the proven innocents, and awarded me exoneration of all charges!

My family and I are very grateful for all of your professional efforts, and your sincere belief of my innocents! We would all, without hesitation, highly recommend you to anyone in need of a great attorney!

Thank you again!

Sincerely,
John Matthew Smith Jr.
