

Pedestrian hit near police department

Police say a driver who hit a pedestrian Saturday night was drinking alcohol before he got behind the wheel of his car.

The pedestrian was injured and taken to Mercy Medical Center. The pedestrian was in the road when hit on Parkview Avenue at State Street near the Redding Police Department headquarters, according to officer Brian Moore.

Daren Christian Reed, 42, of Redding, was driving east in a Honda Civic and was arrested on suspicion of driving under the influence of alcohol.

The unnamed pedestrian was taken to Mercy Medical Center, according to Moore.

Reed was arrested on suspicion of driving under the influence of alcohol.

Reed was not injured in the incident, which happened at about 10:30 p.m.

Anyone with information is asked to call the Redding Police at 530-225-4200.
